

Haralson County High School
Parent Involvement Plan
2023-24

General Expectations

As a Title I school, Haralson County High School agrees to provide programs, activities and procedures for the involvement of parents that are consistent with Title I Part A guidelines. To guarantee student success, partnerships between the school and families are vital. Family members participate in a variety of committees that may include but are not limited to: The Haralson County High School Local Governance Team, athletic and band boosters. We recognize that families are the student's primary teachers and their support is the key ingredient to provide a quality education for the students of Haralson County High School.

Throughout the year, many activities are planned to bring families and school personnel together. This partnership between school and family is intended to maximize success and the potential of all students at Haralson County High School.

Haralson County High School defines parent involvement as the participation of parents in meaningful two-way communication involving student academic learning and other school activities. Parent involvement is most successful when it is viewed, practiced, and promoted as a partnership between home and school. Effective partnerships are characterized by:

- Mutual trust and respect between school and parents
- Effective collaboration between school and parents
- Equality in school-parent relationship

HCHS Parent Involvement Goal

Haralson County High School must provide leadership and will assume responsibility for encouraging active parental involvement by using strategies designed to address the individual needs of all families within the community by encouraging and ensuring:

- HCHS School leaders assume responsibility for promoting parental involvement;
- Parents play an integral role in assisting with their child's learning;
- Parents are encouraged to be actively involved in their child's education at school;
- Parents are full partners in their child's education and are included, as appropriate, in decision-making;
- Strategies are focused on meeting individual needs of all families within the community;
Activities, such as those described in section 1118 of the ESEA, are carried out with fidelity.
